New York, November 18, 1909.

Mr. Bauman L. Belden, Recording Secretary,
The American Numismatic Society,
New York.

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Loeb and I have both received notices of election to membership in The American Numismatic Society, on the nomination of Mr. Brenner. For the present, however, Mrs. Loeb does not care to join herself. I enclose my check for $100., and would gladly be enrolled as a Life Member.

Yours very truly,

Wm. L. Loeb

273 MADISON AVENUE

New York, March 14, 1910.

Mr. Bauman L. Beldon,
Director of the American Numismatic Society,
West 156th Street, New York.

Dear Sir:

I beg to send you herewith my check for $15.00, to pay for one silver and one bronze copy of the Cleveland medal.

May I ask, at the same time, whether any of the bronze replicas of the Catholic Centennary medal are still available, and at what price, as I have, unfortunately, mislaid the circular in which they were offered to members.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Mrs. L. Beldon". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed name "Mrs. L. Beldon".

March 18, 1910.

Dr. Morris Loeb,
273 Madison Avenue,
New York.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of March 14, with cheque for $15.00 for one silver and one bronze Cleveland medal, the medals will be forwarded in a few days.

I can still supply the Catholic medal in both silver and bronze, I enclose one of the circulars.

Very truly yours,

Director.

New York, April 12, 1910.
